Festival ANAMESA
13 - 17 March 2013

When only art comes BETWEEN US

An art festival.
An artistic dialogue with no discriminating boundaries.

Young European talented amateurs and professionals, with or without disabilities, will take part in a festival with various dance, theatrical and musical performances, art workshops and exhibitions. The main theme of this event is to generate an optimistic message and to further develop the values of the city of Athens. The artistic theme of the 2013 Edition has been inspired by Dali's work on the perception of image, on the acceptance of our body and by his innovative spirit, which has prophetically influenced the future.
